

ALLERGEN GUIDE

At LongHorn, we're committed to making the dining experience for every guest, including our guests with food allergies, an exceptional one. That's why we are proud to offer this information to help you make an informed food selection.

Here are a few key points to know when reviewing this guide:

1. Because all of our dishes are prepared-to-order, our normal kitchen operations may involve shared cooking and preparation areas. Therefore, we cannot guarantee that any menu item can be completely free of allergens. Items cooked on our grill or in our fryer present a special risk for cross-contact and we've tried to clearly identify those for you. Please note, our kitchens are not free of Gluten.
2. Please be sure to tell your server that you have an allergy or intolerance. This will allow us to alert the kitchen of your special needs. Our restaurant team members will follow specific procedures to help prevent cross-contact.
3. Our recipes do not call for the use of Monosodium Glutamate (MSG) and, based on information from our suppliers, MSG is not added to any of the ingredients we use. Please note that there are certain foods and ingredients that naturally contain glutamate or glutamic acid (such as tomatoes, milk, cheese, mushrooms, and certain yeasts and proteins).
4. Lastly, please know that due to limited ingredient information available in our kitchen, we may not be able to answer all of your questions. In these cases, please call our Guest Relations team at 800-793-4126 between the hours of 10am and 4pm on Monday through Friday (Eastern Time) so that we can help you. If you prefer to reach us by email, please go to www.longhornsteakhouse.com and click on the Contact Us link. Please know your questions may take several days to investigate.
